

TOWN THEATRE'S 91ST SEASON

You Know 'Em – You Love 'Em – Don't Miss 'Em!
And, as always, Town offers you the best buy in “Town!” *

The King and I

September 18 – October 10, 2009 • Directed by Jamie Carr Harrington

Go ahead and “Whistle a Happy Tune” as we present this captivating musical, based upon a true story of an English governess and her young son sent to the court of Siam to teach the wives and children of the king. A dynamic spectacle unfolds as the king learns to govern from the governess.

Moon Over Buffalo

November 6 – 21, 2009 • Directed by Allison McNeely

We're promoting wild, uproarious laughter as the ordeals of a 1950s acting troupe unfold on the stage of Buffalo's Erlanger Theatre. Misunderstandings and madcap misadventures befall the cast and the mixture is total merriment. You won't know the outcome until you see “Moon” shine over Columbia!

The Odd Couple

January 15 – 30, 2010 • Directed by Allison McNeely

When Felix the neat moves in with Oscar the slob, the patterns from both of their failed marriages emerge with disastrous comic results. From the pen of Neil Simon, it's one of America's greatest comedies.

Always...Patsy Cline!

February 19 – March 6, 2010 • Directed by Allison McNeely

Audience demand is bringing Patsy and Louise back to Town as our number one requested show! Based on a true story, this show mixes Patsy's country croons with Louise's comedic turns. Reprising the roles they created on the Town stage are Shannon Willis Scruggs as Patsy and Kathy Hartzog as Louise. We've said it before and we'll say it again...you're “Crazy” if you miss this one!

Annie Get Your Gun

May 7–29, 2010 • Directed by Scott Blanks

“They Say It's Wonderful” – and truly it will be as the lure of the Wild West, timeless romance and some of the most popular tunes to flow from the pen of Irving Berlin are showcased in this American classic. This show hits the bull's eye, rings and bell and offers one of the most delightful evenings you could imagine. But – don't just imagine! Come and see why “There's No Business like Show Business.”
