is supported by:

TWO Great Opportunities to Conclude Our 101st Season

BROADWAY: Limited Exposure delivers a unique perspective to the pandemic that we have faced during the past year. As our emcee, Bill DeWitt (My Fair Lady), will reminisce and even poke a little fun at some of the realities of living in COVID times. Not to be outdone, Kathy Hartzog (Driving Miss Daisy) will add her typical special touch of humor. Scott Vaughan (Willy Wonka), Sheldon Paschal (The Hunchback of Notre Dame) and Kathy Seppamaki (Nice Work if You Can Get It) bring their powerhouse voices to the stage. Clayton King (Mamma Mia), Hannah Thompson (Into the Woods) and Lanny Spires (Newsies) will delight with poignant moments through songs that touch the heart.

Adding the married couple viewpoint is Chip and Cortlin Collins (Million Dollar Quartet; South Pacific, respectively). And joining us from the cast of A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder are Heather Hinson and Virginia Walker. Audiences will also enjoy Kerri Roberts (Mary Poppins), Billy Bishop (Matilda) and members of the Town Teen Troupe who will pop in to share some of their beautiful vocals. Michael Simmons (creator of Home for the Holidays and Broadway Under the Covers) has crafted this unique musical opportunity that we know you will enjoy!

Country has never had it so good with Town's rendition of Always...Patsy Cline. Meet Louise Seger, a divorced Houston housewife, as she shares her memories and her first real-life encounter with country legend, Patsy Cline. Based on a true story, this show mixes Patsy's country croons with Louise's comedic turns. Town's production premiered in August 2000 as a Town Theatre fundraiser. Our show, starring Kathy Hartzog as Louise and Shannon Willis Scruggs as Patsy, has since graced the stages of the Newberry Opera House, Bishopville Opera House, community theatre venues in Dillon and Greenwood, a statewide convention in Kiawah and, of course, 1012 Sumter Street. The show is directed by Allison McNeely with musical direction by Michael Simmons. We've said it before and we'll say it again...you're "Crazy" if you miss this one!
