

THE TOWN THEATRE

INTERMISSION

AMERICA'S OLDEST CONTINUOUSLY OPERATING COMMUNITY THEATRE

June 2021

Town's 101st season
is supported by:

We know the shoe will fit when you join us for Town's summer production of Cinderella! This isn't your mother's Cinderella either – it's the new Broadway adaptation of the classic tale. Of course, it has some of your favorite Rodgers & Hammerstein songs including "In My Own Little Corner," "Impossible/It's Possible" and "Ten Minutes Ago," but the up-to-date libretto will give you a new love for the story of the girl behind the glass slipper.

Taking the title role of Ella is Maya Fanning, a newcomer to the Town Theatre stage. Zachary Linick (Big Fish, Mary Poppins) is princely as Topher who seeks to find his life's purposes though he is constantly dodging countless women of the kingdom.

Leading that brigade is Marybeth Berry (Mamma Mia, Director of Baskerville) in the role of the evil Stepmother, Madame. Not far behind their mother is Shelby Sessler (Miss Saigon, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang) and Erin Niland (making her Town debut) in the roles of Charlotte and Gabrielle, the evil stepsisters. Not only must Topher navigate his way through internal crossroads, he also is up against "trusted" advisor, Clayton King (Hairspray, Catch Me If You Can) as Sebastian. Adding magic (and some mayhem) is everyone's favorite Fairy Godmother, shared by Christy Shealy Mills (The Little Mermaid, frequent Town choreographer) and Leah McNeely Tudor (Arsenic and Old Lace, Jekyll & Hyde). Heralding our story's events is Nathan Lawson as Lord Pinkleton with Thomas Sowell as the fiery Jean-Michel who fights for justice for the peasants. Both Nathan and Thomas are making their first appearance at 1012 Sumter Street.

Don't let the clock strike midnight before you have a chance to see LIVE THEATRE at America's oldest continuously operating community theatre.

A Night at The Ball

Join the SC Bar Young Lawyers Division, Town Theatre and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. as they raise support for The Cinderella Project.

The Cinderella Project is sponsored by the SC Bar Young Lawyers Division in partnership with other community organizations statewide to match high school girls in need with prom dresses and accessories each spring. In its 20th year, the initiative collects donations across the state and holds boutiques for high school students to shop for the dresses of their dreams, free of charge. In Columbia, the YLD partners with the Upsilon Omega Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

The SC Bar and Town will host its own special collection day, but we know many of our generous Town Theatre supporters may also want to contribute. Monetary donations, gift cards and costume jewelry are preferred; however, gently worn prom, bridesmaid and other formal gowns are accepted too. Feel free to bring your donation to Town Theatre when you come to the show or during box office hours. We'll be sure to pass them on to the SC Bar. Learn more about The Cinderella Project at cinderellaprojectsc.com.

We are so happy that summertime at Town is “back to normal.” The return of our regular working environment affords us the opportunity to host our technical theatre interns. Since 2017, Town has served as a summer workshop opportunity for students interested in developing their technical theatre skills. Summer internships at Town are ideal for candidates who are looking to study technical theatre and/or design in high school, Governor’s School or college. I’ve loved getting to know other students over the past few weeks and getting to work with them on set. Prior to starting my internship, I had done work in performance, costume design, and a little set design. Since starting at Town though, I have been able to learn so much about set construction by getting to do woodworking, painting, and drilling. It has been so much fun getting to learn something new every day with such a great team and working with them to create a beautiful show. I’m looking forward to learning more about theatre production this summer and I hope everyone loves Cinderella as much as I’ve loved working on it.”

In Town’s four summers of running the internship program, we have had upwards of 20 students participate. Not only are they getting a top-notch experience with Danny Harrington, Town’s Technical Director, they are a tremendous asset to our summer production and theatre. We thank them for their hard work!
